THAN ANY TWO OTHER NEWSPAPERS.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JUNE 7, 1888.

PRICE ONE CENT.

Damaging Testimony Given at Her Trial To-Day.

Lawyer Townsend Indignant at a Morning Paper.

Pretty Actress KatelSandsbury Tells How the Fat Medium Tried to Hire Her to Play "Spirit" and Disappear Through a Trap-Door-A Sensation This Morn ing When the Hearing Began.

Counselor, John D. Townsend put a bit of pice into the trial of Princess Editha Lolita Diss Debar and her martial side partner, the General," at the opening of Judge Gilder. sleeve's Court this morning.

He complained, as an officer of the court, that he had been wronged in an article in a norning paper, which stated that he had spirited away one of the principal witnesses for the prosecution. He demanded that the court investigate and punish either the paper or himself.

Assistant District-Attorney Dos Passos mid the story was unfounded, and the matter vas dropped.

The first witness of the day was a pretty, plump and petite brunette in a Gobelin blue gown, frizzes and a black lace bonnet.

She said she was Mrs. Kate Sandsbury, of Baltimore, an actress, who met the madame in 1878 or 1879 in Baltimore, when she introduced herself as the daughter of Prof. Salomon. In 1888 she met her again in this city and the madame then told her that she had been married to a M. Messant (pronounced Missong) and that her husband was dead.

YOUNG LAWBENCE IN COURT. Later still she lived with the madame and he General, as their guest, at Broadway and forty-third street, and here the madame pro-osed to her that she help her in Spiritualistic

The little actress was to materialize as a a trap-door when necessary.

At this testimony the bulky spirit broker leaned over the table to Mr. Townsend and in a fat whisyer remarked: "That is not in

Mrs. Sandsbury said that at this time the

Mrs. Sandsbury said that at this time the "General" was occupied in painting portraits.

This testimony caused consternation among the Spiritualistic supporters of the madame, and her lawyer only sufficiently recovered from its effects to offer an offensive question, and the cross-examination brought out nothing to injure the damaging statements on the direct examination.

Mrs. Sandsbury never had "materialized" and refused to do so for the madame. She was out of employment and madame's guest for three months, but paid her board afterward. She had been a chorus girl with McCaul. Mrs. Jennie Hanlon, a matronly woman past middle age, testified that she knew the falomons during the war, in Brooklyn. The defendant was one of them, and was about as now, but her mother was very stout.

At this juncture the fuffy madame grew restless and demanded in a stage whisper, "Froduce the lady! Produce the lady!" With this cue Mr. Townsend demanded that Mrs. Salomon be produced. Mr. Davis explained tha Mrs. Salomon was over seventy years of age and living in Kentucky.

Mrs. Hanlon also boarded in Yonkers at the same place with Lola Montes and her lalleged daugh.

maid.

A comparison of sizes and temperaments between Lola Montez and her alleged daughter followed. Mr. Davis asked the madame to stand up. She did so with poor grace, remarking that she was "five feet two,"

James W. Randolph, a theatrical manager since 1878, testified that he met Mme. Diss Debar at Mr. Marsh's house in April last. He called to arrange for putting her on exhibition as a Spiritualistic medium. He found her on the third floor, in her room with the "General." General."
Privately madame offered to accept him for her manager, the two to divide the profits of the ranks we qually. Then Mr. Marsh entered the room and madams said to him: "I see an unnatural light in your face which seems to say: 'Mr. Randolph must be our manager.'" which seems to say: 'Mr. Kandoiph must be our manager.'"

Mr. Marsh murmured in return something about obeying the will of the holy spirits, and the bargain was sealed but not signed. Next day, at a second visit, she said: "Now you are my manager and confidential man How do you like my house?"
Randolph replied that there were no flies on her. She must be pretty smart to get the best of Mr. Marsh.
She replied: "I can give you fellows with sawdust on your feet pointers on how to work soft snaps.

soft snaps.

'This is nothing. I'll have $150,000 more before the end of April, and you'll be in with it."

before the end of April, and you'll be in with it."

The witness asked her, "Do you mean to say that I am to have half of anything you get out of Marsh?"

And she assented "every dollar. But the Lawrences are calling it blackmail."

She said Marsh must be handled quietly, and wanted me to get his consent to put the spirit pictures on exhibition.

Witness remarked that there were not enough of the pictures, and madame replied:

"Oh, you can have all you want." and opening the door of a rear room on the third floor, discovered the General painting pictures on his knee.

Madame said the picture business was getting stale, any way, and related that a fir. Alipp had bought a valuable statue aboved.

1

THE DISS DE BAR WILL O' THE WISP

Path, but He Says He Will Stick to It.

Mr. Kipp. Madame had restored the finger, even to a small blood vein, and got $3,000 for it, doing it by spirit power.

She related, the witness said, that Marsh had been instructed by her that if he read any papers other than religious papers his soul would be in outer darkness for 30,000 years. If he read religious papers only he would stand outside the gates only twenty-four hours.

On cross-examination Randolph admitted tour nours.

On cross-examination Randolph admitted having written to Marsh that he (Randolph) had exposed the medium and asked for a re-

FLAMES IN GREENPOINT.

An Oil Pipe Bursts and a Blacksmith Shop Is Destroyed.

Shortly after 9 o'clock this morning an alarm of fire was sounded from the corner of Oakland street and Greenpoint avenues. When the firemen arrived they found that one of the receiving tanks of the Pratt Company's oil works had exploded and was burning flercely.

Taking in the situation at a glance, a second alarm was immediately sent in. The firemen then set at once to work to try and stay the progress of the flames.

All the reserves of the Seventh Precinct, under Cart. Rhodes, went to the scene and kept back the immense crowd of spectators. It was feared that the fire would reach the immense supply pipe which runs the oil from Weehawken through New York to Green-point.

Weehawken through New York to Greenpoint.
The fire was got under control, however,
before it reached the main tank.
The fire did communicate with a blacksmith shop near by, which was soon in flames. In the course of an hour the flames were checked.
The blacksmith shop is burnt down and refuse lumber in an adjoining yard went into the flames.
The fire started this way: Andrew Cassidy, the blacksmith, thought it a good plan to save some of the oll after the pipe burst, and a man secured two palls of it. A spark set fire to it.
The shop was soon destroyed, and John

The shop was soon destroyed, and John O'Toole's shoe shop next door also went up, Several families living over O'Toole's lost

A spark from Engine No. 13, of Powell street, set fire to some oil flowing in the street near the corner of Oakland avenue. The oil blazed up, and the horses lost their fetlocks, manes and tails.

The damage by the fire is less than $2,500.

WHAT! ROBBING OUR DELEGATES?

Sneak-Thief at St. Louis Overnowered b Alderman Pitzelmmons

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.] Louis, June 7.—Alderman Fitzsim nons. Deputy Coroner Jenkins and John Campbell, a clerk in the Fire Department, occupied the same room in the Southern Hotel. At 8 this morning Dr. Jenkins arose

Hotel. At 8 this morning Dr. Jenkins arose and, dressing himself, went out for a few moments, leaving the door unlocked.

When Alderman Fitzsimmons opened his eyes he saw a stranger diving into the pockets of his trousers. The Alderman jumped up and seized him. Campbell was aroused and he and the Alderman had a collar-and-elbow time of it with the thief. But they finally got him on the floor.

The Alderman and his roommate took their prisoner downstairs and handed him over to a policeman. The sneak thief gave his name as George Howard. He had $105 in his pockets.

pockets.

Aldermen Fitzsimmons and Campbell may have to remain in St. Louis to prosecute him.

A Fire Alarm at a Wedding. During a wedding ceremony at Calvary Church, Fourth avenue and Twenty-first street, to-day gas began to escape in the church. Somebody, need-lessly approhensive, sent out an alarm of fire. The church was trowded, but by prompt action all lears were allayed and a panic averted.

The Quotations.

THE SHARKING
Open.	Blah.	Lou
Canada Southern 48%	4616	485
Canadian Pacific 563	06%	469
Olevetand, Cot., Con. & Ind 46%	4634	463
	11257	112
Chicago & Northwest 1995 Chic., Mil. & St. Paul 645	100%	That
Onte. Mil. & St Paul pro 105%	106	1065
Chic. Book Island & Pacific 107	1071	107
Consolidated Ges 72%	7.62	724
Del. Lack. & Western 124)4	1987	128)
Delaware & Budson 108%	10836	1685
Book Toun., Va. & Ga		25
Fort Worth and Deaver Dity 37	.27	.27
Illinois Central Lessed Lines	984	117
Louisville & Mashville 639,	ANA	70
Lake Shore 9 &	9134	80
Lake Krie & Western 148	14%	145
Like Kris & Western old 47%	4276	4.7
Lemg Island 93%	2014	2.5
Manhattan Cousei	B0.25	BUS
Missouri Pacific	7092	700
Muse ur. Kanuss & Taxas 13	117	19"
How Jarney Central 63%	8834	883
New York Central	196%	105
B. X. & Now Engiang	2175	2.3
N. Y. Lake rie & Western, pfd 55%	12%	722
W W does A West use	55	227
N. Y., Sueq. & West pfg	2014	55.
Morthern Pagific pref 0116	8152	611
Oregon Transcontinental 23%	24.	307
Oregon Unprovement	2436	24
Philadalphia & Reading 60%	200	22
Passia, Decatur & Evans	10	10
Pullman Palace Car Co 15136	151%	1511
Rich, & West Point Ter 20	13	28
Rich. & W. P. Ter. pfd 05	69	56
Nt. Paul & Omaha	36	86
St. Louis & San Francisco pfd 66% Tozas Pacific	1012	Tuk
Tena, Con & Iron	28 7	270
Union Pacific 64%	6614	845
Wabash, St. Louis & Pacific pid 23	34	24.
Western Union Telegraph 75%	10%	15%

MR. BLAINE OFF FOR SCOTLAND.

Twenty Days Before He Will Return the Carnegie Conching Party. INT CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.

LONDON, June 7. - The Carnegie coaching party left the Hotel M tropole this morning at 11 o'clock for their proposed tour of England and Scotland.

Among the party were Mr. and Mrs. Blaine, Gail Hamilton, Dr. Eston and Walter Damrosch, the young conductor of New York. They started in fine weather. Quite a large crowd of Americans saw them off in their coach-and-four in front of the Hotel Metropole. They propose to be gone wenty days, winding up at Cluny Castle, scotland, which Mr. Carnegie has rented for he season.

Mr. Blaine was in excellent spirits and health and appeared to be quite active. There was a lively scene at the departure spectators and excursionists cheering heart-

GEN. SHERIDAN NOT 80 WELL.

He Passed a Restless Night and Complaine of Nausen. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD

WASHINGTON, June 7 .- The following unfavorable bulletin was issued at 9 o'clock this

Gen. Sheridan passed a somewhat restless night. He complained of nausea. His tongue is heavily coated and his mind is less clear. The kidneys are toing their work. Pulse, 114; respiration, 82, No. return of hemorrhage.

TORNADO NEAR GLENS FALLS.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]

GLERS FALLS, June 7 .- At Kingsbury, abou five miles east of Glens Falls, a tornade caused great damage last evening. It was accompanied by rain, thunder and lightning and hail. A barn 40 by 80 feet, owned by william Munger, was blown down. In the barn were fifteen cows, three or four calves and several wagons. Cornelius Connors had just gone into the barn to commence milking the cows. Mr. Connors and the live stock were in the basement of the barn. The tornado came from the West and was about a half mile wide. It struck Munger's barn, and in the twinkling of an eye the structure was a mass of broken boards and timbers. Some of the timbers fell on a feed-box, and that was all that saved Connors's life, as he was under them. He was taken out seriously hurt. Three cows were killed: the others escaped with slight bruises, so far as could be learned. The calves were uninjured.

About a mile east of Munger's place the roof of Alfred Sherman's barn was blown off and carried across the road. The chimneys of his house were blown off.

A portion of the roof and the chimneys of William Roark's house in that neighborhood were blown away and his barn was twisted partly around.

In the path of the storm trees were uproceed and fences levelled.

At Goodspeedville, near Glens Falls, lightning struck the residence of Mrs. Mary Sherman. It passed down the chimney, shattered the side of the house and splintered the foundation.

The same electrical discharge, or a portion William Munger, was blown down. In the foundation.

The same electrical discharge, or a portion of it, struck Mrs. Sherman's dress, passed through it and through the stocking on her right foot, tore open the shoe and burned her foot from heel to toe. She was prostrated.

Mrs. Frank Sisson, who was in the house, had her right arm burned at the same time from albow to fingers. She was also considered.

from elbow to fingers. She was also considerably shocked.

Across the street from Mrs. Sherman's house Roger Hopkins resided. His daughter, either from shock or fright, was thrown into violent spasms.

THE CIGARETTE GIRLS' STRIKE.

It Is Amicably Settled and the Girls All Return to Work.

The difficulty at W. Duke, Sons & Co.'s sigarette manufactory, at First avenue and Iwenty-ninth street, was amicably adjusted this forenoon through the kindly offices of Ernest Bohm, Secretary of the Central Labor Union, and a committee of the Excelsion Labor Club, to which the twenty-five young women who struck are attached.

The girls who were removed from the machine room to the hand-work department were given the privilege of returning and the firm gave the foreman to understand that he must treat the girls in his charge in a perspectful manner.

peetful manner.

The Messrs. Duke were not aware that here had been any real cause for complaint there had been any real cause for complaint on the part of the girls until the strike oc-curred. All hands returned to work at once after the settlement was made.

HANGMAN JOE ATKINSON.

His Unfavorable Opinions on the Electric Method of Executing Murderers

Joe Atkinson, known as "Issaes the Hangnan," of Williamsburg, strongly expressed himself to an inquiring reporter on the Electrical Execution bill. "What do I think of the Bill?" said the

"What do I think of the Bill?" said the hangman. "Well, while I am in favor of the easiest and most conventional form of death, I am convinced that electricity as a punishment in capital cases will be a failure. Why, the very thought of such an easy death and the absence of the gallows will strike as little terror in murderers' hearts as a sixmonths' term in Sing Sing. I tell you there was no better determent to crime than the gallows. Hanging, too, under my supervision was painless and effectual, as was shown recently in the case of Danny Driscoll, the Whyo chief."

Six Persons Killed in an Explosion.

[SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
St. PAUL, June 7.—The boiler of a portable engine in the Union Depot Company's yards exploded this morning, killing six persons.

Cooler, Pair Weather.

WASHINGTON, June 7.-Weather Indications: For Connecticut and Bastern New York -

The Weather To-Day.

Democracy Declares for Tariff Reform,

The Plank of 1884 and President's Message.

Thurman's Name Presented by Tarpey.

Watterson and Gorman Address the Convention

Ladios Struck by Lightning, Buildings Gray, of Indiana, Nominated by Senater Voerhees.

> [BY SPECIAL WIRE TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CONVENTION HALL, St. Louis, June 7-9.40 M .- The weather is very warm.

It is stated on good authority that the Plat. form Committee has agreed on the tariff plank of 1884 as interpreted by the President's message, but as the vote in committee was close, the fight may be carried to the convention.

The morning papers agree that Thurma shows more strength than any other Vice-Presidential candidate, but that Gray's name will not be withdrawn and that the Gray and Black forces may be turned to Don Dickin-

this afternoon.

8.47.-Mr. White, of California, said just now that Thurman would be nominated on the first ballot. He will be placed in nomination by Tarpey, of California. The nomi-nation will be seconded by Daniels, of Virginia, and by an Ohio man, probably Powell. 9.54.-Mr. O'Day, of Missouri, says there will be no fight in the convention on the tariff plank. In this event, the convention will adjourn early.

10.29.—Before the convention was called to order most of the State banners were adorned with bandannas. Great cheering when a flaming bandanna was hung on New York's banner.

Bandannas waving from the galleries and all over the halt.

10.27.-Indiana men boisted a banner with gray handkerchief. Cheering by Gray and Thurman people at intervals. Most of the delegates on their feet. Cheering renewed as Texas hoists the bandanna.

10.30.—Only delegations not flying banlannas are Alabama, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Massachusetts, Louisiana, District of Columbia, Dakota, Iowa, Tennessee and Maryland. 10.81. - Convention called to order

10.35-Invocation delivered by Dr. Brank. of St. Louis.

10.38.—Henry Watterson takes the platform with the report of the Committee on Resolutions. Cheers and applause. Three cheers given for the Starry-Eyed Goddess of Re-

10. 40.—The clerk is standing on the desk to read the resolutions. 10.42.—Cheers and applause at the clause in the preamble indorsing Cleveland's message. Cheers and waving of hats and canes. 10.48. - Message of the President indorsed as the correct interpretation of the platform of "84." The reading of this part of the committee's report greeted with constant

10:50.—The mention of the reclamation of public land, the construction of the navy and the negotiation of the Chinese treaty in the platform was greeted with applause. 11 .- Reading of the platform concluded amid great applause. " Harrab for Watterson."

11.01-Watterson takes the platform and is greeted with applause and cries of "Hurrah for Watterson." His speech punctuated with applause and cheering. 11.08.-Watterson says : "Two good Demcrats can never know each other well until they have had some fun with each other. This will furnish reasons why I should pre sent to you Senator Gorman." (Laughter and great applause.) 11.12.—Gorman's speech interrupted by a disturbance in the rear of the hall caused by the crowd filling the vacant seats. Order 11.17.—Gorman has finished speaking. Watterson demanded the previous question, and the platform was unanimously adopted amid great cheering. In Favor of the Mills Bill.

11.20. - Scott, of Pennsylvania, greeted with applause. He presented from the Committee on Resolutions a resolution indoesing and recommending the early passage of the Mills bill. (Great applause.) 11.21.-Previous question was ordered on Scott's resolution, and the resolution was assed amid great cheering and waving of 11.22.-F. W. Lahman, of Iowa, from the s. presents a resolution indersing a liberal policy towards Territories, recom- It is one of those mornings when some one mending the admission of Washington, Montana, Dakota and New Mexico. The previous question was ordered and the resolution 11.23.-Gov. Abbett, of New Jersey, from the committee, presents a resolution expressing sympathy with the struggling people of all nations in their efforts to obtain the blessing of self-government, and especially declaring sympathy with the patriots led by Gladstone and Parnell. Resolution adopted. 11.27 .- C. W. Baker, of Ohio, asks unanimous consent to offer resolutions of respect to the late Thomas A. Hendricks, Consent granted. The mention of Hendricks's name was greeted with loud and continued ap-

11.29.—Hendricks resolution adopted by a unahimous rising vote.

11.30.—The Chairman announces that Edward Cooper, of New York, dissented from part of the platform. 11.31.—The roll call begun for the nominations of Vice-President, Tarpey, of California, takes the platform to nominate Thur-

Tarpey Nominates Thurman. 11.34.—The mention of Thurman's name greeted by the waving of bandannas and with great cheering. 11.43.—The mention of Gov. Gray's nam by Tarpey brings out mingled cheers and hisses long continued. 11.44.—Tarpey's speech interrupted with cries of "Gray." Great confusion. Gray's picture hooted by an alternate. Chairman raps for order.

11.45. -Further interruptions by Gray men. Much confusion. 11.47.-Roll call continued. Confusion. Chairman threatens to have galleries cleared.

T. M. Patterson, of Colorado, takes the 11.52.—The mention of Black's name by Patterson brings out slight applause.

11.52,-Great cheering when Patterson referred to Black's war service and to his action in the Chicago Convention of '84. 11. 58.—Patterson's mention of Thurman's name brings forth loud cheers.

11.58.—Patterson, of Colorado, has with-drawn the name of Gen. Black and announced that his delegation would support Thurman. Noon.-Red bandannes are waving in all parts of the hall. A telegram from Gen. Black, declining to allow his name to be presented, has just been received by Patterson. 12.05, -Thurman's nomination has just been conded by Piggott, of Connecticut, amid tremendous applicase and the flying of red bandannas from every portion of the Con-Convention Hall.

Voorhees Newinates Gray. 12.10.—Voorhees takes the floor to present the name of Gray. Wild cheering. 12.12. -Voorhees making a strong appeal to the South to stand by Indiana, referring to his State as the battle-ground of the Democratic party. His speech is having a telling effect on the delegates.

12.15.-Voorhees claims that without In. diana they cannot hope to carry the next election. 12.20-Mention of Gray's name brought the Indiana delegation to their feet. Three cheers for Gray given. 12.24. - Voorbees finishes amid applause and the blowing of horns. Albert H. Cox of prise and has created big excitement from Georgia to succeed the nomination of ssaac P. Gray. Great applause. 12.28.-Evan E. Little, of Kentucky, takes the platform to second the nomination of 12.25.-Cox says he rises as a Union man

[For the speech of Tarpey, of California ninating Thurman see fourth page.] 19.37. - Little interrupted by cries of Time!" and "Go on." Confusion and issing all over the hall. 12.37.-Confusion and cries of "Time!" Chairman raps for order. 12.49.—Dryden, of Missouri, takes the platform to second the nomination of Thurman. Great and continued applause and waving of handkerchiefs. 12.45.-Gov. Green, of New Jersey, takes Thurman. 12.52.-Dorsey, of Nevada, seconds Thurnan's nomination. 12.58.-Hon. Geo. Raines, of Rochester, N.

the platform to second the nomination of

., Seconds the nomination of Thurman. 1.05 P. M.-North Carolina seconds the omination of Thurman. 1.06 P. M.-Gen. Tom Powell, of Ohio, sec onds the name of Thurman. 1. 10.-Editor Dawson, of South Carolina, seconds the nomination of Thurman. 1.13. - Thompson, of Tennessee, seconds the nomination of Thurman. 1.15. -J. W. Throckmorton, of Texas, secnds Thurman's nomination. 1.20.—Senator Daniel, of Virginia, rises to second Thurman's nomination. Wild cheer-

1:21.-Every indication that Thurman will secure the nomination. The Tariff Plank.

Here is the tariff plank of the platform :

The Democratic party of the United States. The Democratic party of the United States, in National Convention assembled, renews the pledges of its fidelity to our Democratic faith and reaffirms the platform adopted by its representatives in the convention of 1884, and indorses the views expressed by President Cleveland in his last annual message to Congress as the correct interpretation of that platform upon the question of tariff reduction and also indorses the efforts of our Democratic Representatives in Congress to secure a reduction of excessive taxation.

LAST NIGHT AND TO-DAY AT ST. LOUIS. Swelled Heads, Hearse Throats Revived by the Scenes in Convention

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. Br. Louis, June 7 .- There were swelled heads in St. Louis this morning, and the heat didn't make them any pleasanter to poss seems to have pre-empted all the air and gotten it stored away son ewhere over night and the weary delegates and music-makers and shouters are looking forward in misery to the prospect which greets them here to-day shouters are looking forward in misery to the prospect which greets them here to-day of staying on in the town and wrestling with a vexatious dead-lock.

People thought last night that Gray was beaten, and suspicious ones said Gov. White, of California, was figuring to secure for himself the Vice-Presidential nomination. His concess on to Voorhees in the convention coupled with the action of the New York Courty Democracy in coming out for Gray as against Thurman were deemed significant.

White was about the corridors of the Southern Hotel until 1 or 2 in the morning, and people turned as he passed to look again at that square, heavy, resolute face and that substantial frame clad in close-fitting broadcloth. All night long bands of men were going about yelling for Thurman. The frequency of yells for Stevenson was noticeable.

When the Gray cohorts showed up marching from one hotel to another they were painfully depleted and the veterans looked jaded and forlorn. Many of the Indiana contingent who for three days had been screaming the membranes off their throats left for home yesterday evening wearied out in fighting a forlorn hope.

The work which Voorhees sought to have done when he fought for an adjournment in the convention was accomplished, not so much by the waving of banners and the yelling of hoodlums as by quiet speeches by intelligent men in delegation rooms.

St. Louis does not appear to weary of its bargain, but is turning all the pennies that it can. Beer is consumed at a rate that is appalling. A youth who, clad in light tronsers, fashionable cutsway coat and a light derby, stood on too of a cab in front of the Lindell House at 2 o'clock this morning and, waving his gloves in one hand and his hat in the other, invited the crowd to come up and kiss him for his mother, while a tired-out band ranged on the sidewalk played patriotic airs for every one's else discomfort, was a fair example of the night scenes that are transpiring in the streets of the city.

Policemen are lenient. They of this country," under their tongues as a sweet morsel.

The front rows of the galleries of Convention Hall were filled with people at 9 o'clock. Fans were in steady motion. The hot sun was beating down through the big windows of the roof and the air was filled with the strains of the "Bohemian Girl."

The first delegate to show himself was the inevitable White, of California. His well-brushed silk hat on the back of his head, his thick features shiny with perspiration, he walked up and down the aisle with the air he has all the time of a man waiting. Other delegates coming in removed their hats, but White and his tile were inseparable.

By and by he climbed the red carpeted stairs, sat down at the clerk's deak and entered into earnest conversation with the chief stenographer. Then he borrowed a pencil and indited a resolution.

At 9.30 the hall was filling up rapidly. The ceremony of draping the banner staffs with bandanas, gray ribbons, hats and other tokens was again gone through with, more as a matter of course than anything else. A few perfunctory cheers greeted it, and the Gray gonfalons were waving from the galleries.

leries.
Venerable Dr. R. G. Brank, of St. Louis, clasped his hands before him and offered clasped his hands before him and offered prayer.

Henry M. Watterson, bearing the fruits of the Platform Committee's deliberations, was then introduced by the Chair, and the noise the convention made showed it was not sorry to see him. When he remarked that the resolutions had been agreed upon unanimously by the committee, there was a long cheer, and when Clerk Thomas Petit, who had mounted the chair, read in a clear, farreaching voice the opening sentences of every clause, clearing up, as they did, the meaning of the 1884 platform, it was met with a loud demonstration.

emonstration.

Mr. Petit's reading gave an added virtue to the resolutions. He is Reading Clerk in the House of Representatives and knows to a nicety the necessities of the business. His every word was as clean cut as a gem.

As the crowd in the building grew greater and they remembered that the tariff had been patched up and that the Vice-Presidency was the big issue of the day's deliberation, the cheering over the Thurman emblems waxed louder.

Man on the floor recoving their brown cheering over the Thurman emblems waxed louder.

Men on the floor mopping their brows asked each other, "How long will it last today?" Some said it would be all over in an hour, for it was whispered that the leaders had decided the original slate would be put through and Thurman nominated at once.

Others thought there would be a struggle. Tammany had ordered its train for 3 o'clock and by 4 expected to be beyond the Mississipp speeding towards home.

The County Democracy talked of waiting till to-morrow morning.

When, after the floor was crowded and the convention about to begin, a bandanna was tossed up in New York's standard, people who had wondered what would come of the split in the Empire State delegation cheered wildly, and as State after State came up solid with a bandanna in the hand of each delegate the word passed from mouth to mouth: "That settles it," but still the Indiana men were waving their flags of grey.

At 10.30 Chairman Collins rapped the body to order.

Four or five pages down in the platform the clerk met with a hard knot which was too much for him. "Pass it, pass it," cried voices from the platform, and he went on.

Whea the subject of taxation was reached the reading was often interrupted by applause. The paragraph on trusts received

When the subject of taxation was reached the reading was often interrupted by applause. The paragraph on trusts received its due share of attention. Among the delegates there was little enthusiasm.

At the close of the reading Henry Watterson was on the platform. "Fellow Democrats," he said as the cheering subsided, "we bring you a platform upon which Democrats may stand without feeling that they are away from home. It embodies a statement of facts incontrovertible. It gives to reform a language which would be spoken alike in New Jersey and Iowa, Massachusetts and Texas. and Texas.
"It's face is set in the right direction, and "It's face is set in the right direction, and its eyes look upon the rising, not the setting, sun. (Cheers.) Gentlemen, the hand of agritation is one thing, the hand of reconstruction is another. Thanks to Grover Cleveland—(cheers)—the attention of the country, woosd by others so long in vau, hrs been won. The voice of the people will become its hands, but they will be the hand of construction, not of destruction."

Senator Gorman, who spoke next, was interrupted by commotion under the left gallery. The Senator resumed his discussion of the tariff. He said: "We will hold every Democrat to the cardinal principle of the party, but give him freedom of conscience. With such a principle and such a candidate, we march forth to battle and are certain of victory."

we march forth to battle and are certain or victors."

Mr. Tarpey, of California, had a red bandanna in his hand when he rose to nominate Thurman. He spoke a long piece. As he went on enumerating the virtues of the noblest Roman the Gray men filled in the pauses of this speech with cheers for their candidate. When he said, "Gentlemen, I nominate the one man who can sweep the country." He paused for a second before maning Thurman.

The Indianians shouted with all their lungs "Gray! Gray! Gray!" The delegates whe sat under the Thurman banners were dural as they listened to the nomination speech. The loudest cheers were at its close, and Chairman Collins had to tell the galieries.

The foundest cheers were at its close, and Chairman Collins had to tell the galieries to behave themselves.

Delegate Patterson covered himself with glory in the speech he made on the name of Gen. Black. No one anticipated what the end would be. After praising Gen. Black's record he spoke of the growing Thurman boom. The audience, which had expected a nomination, began to expect a withdrawal, and was sure of it when Gen. Black's telegram was read.

The funile of Mr. Patterson's speech, simply leaving the name with the convention, was a masterpiece of tact and g.eccul.ness, and the convention shouted its appreciation of the movement.

Connecticut spoke through Delegate Pickett, and then the tall Sycamore rose in his seat and the State of Indians was called and Indiana sent after him on his way to the platform a volley of ringing plaudits.

NEW YORK'S RESOLUTION.

Modest About the Vice-Presidency, but $ Favor of Thurman.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD. Sr. Louis, June 7 .- The New York dele gates did not get together until 11 o'clock, New York time. Mr. Murtha, of Brooklyn, presided. Everything was harmonious The following resolution, offered by Mr.

Waterbury, was adopted: Whereas, At the time of the action heretofore taken by the delegation upon the subject of the nemination for Vice-President there had not been a general manifestation of the opinion of other delegations, and the delegation of the State hosted with the Presidental can-jidate was unwilling to express any opinion to influence the action of others; and to express any opinion to influence the action of others; and

Whereas, The desire generally felt to close the proceedings of the convention, makes it manpedient that this delegation should cause delay by arrest—that is, be allowed to retire for consultation; therefore,
Resolved, That if, when the State is called, or when all the other States have been called, Allen G. Thurman shall have received the greatest number of votes for Vice-President, the Chairman of the delegation shall cast the vote of New York in his favor.

His Share of a Valuable Estate Awalting His Claim in Kings County. George Rimmer, who lived in Brooklyn in iestitute circumstances when last heard of is one of six children whom reverses of fortune had separated. An estate of $35,000, in

To "The Evening World" News THE EVENING WORLD Newsboy Ba Club will report at this office in full uniform

They will report again at this office at 8 A. s. to-morrow for the morning game with the Detroit boys at the Polo Grounds, There

Washington at New York. AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. St. Louis at Brooklyn.

The Standing of the Clui victory over his accusers and his triumphant re election for a further term of two years was given to the public in THE EVENING WORLD'S extra vesterday afternoon. The result of the Board's action was es brought against him.

Superintendent Jasper's Victory.

He said he intended to do all in his power during his new term for the improvement of select methods and the good of the scholars.

Thomas Rowland, who keeps a liquor-store in Charlestown, murdered his wife, Sarah, and then committed suicide. Jealousy was the cause. lay Gould's Fon a Stock Exchange Member Edwin Gould, a son of Jay Gould, was adm o membership in the Stock Exchange to-day,

Clifton Events To-Morrow. [SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
CLIPTON RACE TRACE, JUNE L.—Here are the en-

First Race. Purse $209, for beaten three-year-olds three quarters of a mile. Journod.....

Piper-Heidslock tion

On Mr. Croker's motion the delegates ar-swered to their names, and the delegates unanimously declared a preference for Thur-

WHERE IS GEORGE RIMMER?

Kings County, now awaits division among the six, and all but George have been found by advertisements in The Wonto. Should George Rimmer not appear in a week's time the property will be divided, his share going to the County Treasury.

at 7 p. m. to-day, to attend the Thalia Theatre with the Detroit Journal boys.

Sames Scheduled for To-Day. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Louisvilles at Cleveland. Kanses Citys at Baitimore. Jersey Citys at Allentown. Newsrips at Easter CENTRAL LEAGUE.

The first news of School Supering awaited and caused a sensation in the city, espe-cially in school circles.

Mr. Jasper was at his desk this morning, as usual, and expressed his satisfaction at the favor-able reports made by the committee on the charges

Jenlousy, Murder and Suicide [RPECIAL TO THE WORLD.]
BOSTON, June 7.—About 4 o'clock this morning

Other members admitted were George W. H and H. J. Faulkner.

tries for to-morrow:

must be no delay in the morning.